March 1947

1. In Regis/Sachsen 10,000 persons, including men, women, and children, are employed on the dismantling of Deutsche Erdöl A. G. They were forcibly drafted by labor offices from the Regis-Borna district.

April 1947

2. At Glashütte, Kreis Dippoldiswalde, the Archimedes Rechenmaschinen A. G. and the Uhren-Rohwerke-Fabrik A. G. have been dismantled. Two other factories escaped dismantling: A. Lange & Söhne, manufacturers of chronometers, clocks, and precision instruments; and Gössel & Co., manufacturers of traversing gear (Laufwerke), measuring apparatus, and fuses for the armed forces. Both the latter firms are continuing to operate under the orders of the SMA for Land Sachsen.
3. The Sachsenerz A. G. tin and wolframite mines at Altenberg and Geising have been completely dismantled.
4. A branch of MIAG (Hannover) at Schmiedeberg, also in Kreis Dippoldiswalde, has been dismantled, and only very limited production by hand is taking place.
5. The Blanke Armaturen Werke at Dippoldiswalde have been completely dismantled.
